NAME:	_DATE:
Cite rule number whenever possible in the responses

FCA 3-D

- 1. Why does a Safety Officer inspect a 3-D course before a competition?
- 2. A target is set at 42 yards. Which classes can shoot this target?
 - Cadet Compound (CADC) outdoors? Indoors?
 Bowhunter Finger (BHF) outdoors? Indoors?
 Masters 60 (M60) outdoors? Indoors?
- 3. From what stake does the Hunter class shoot? outdoors? Indoors?
- 4. What are the restrictions about stabilizers for Hunter classes?

 Traditional classes?

 Bowhunter classes?
- 5. What is the appropriate procedure when an archer has an equipment failure?
- 6. In what FCA 3D class are your sight pins not allowed to be moved on the course?
- 7. For 3D, what is the maximum distance for each shooting stake color?
- 8. For 3D, what color is the traditional category shooting stake?
- 9. Is there a maximum permissible arrow velocity for 3-D equipment?
- 10. a) Under what circumstances is an arrow considered a pass-through?
 - b) Can a pass-through be re-shot?
 - c) Does it have to be re-shot?
- 11. a) Can a shooter change shooting groups while on the course?
 - b) If so, how?
- 12. What is the score of an arrow embedded in the hoof of a target animal?
- 13. a) If a scorer marks an incorrect score on the score card, can it be corrected?
 - b) What is the procedure?
- 14. a) Can competitors discuss the distance to a target?
 - b) When?
 - c) With whom?
- 15. What equipment is required to be present in order to verify that an archer's arrows and bow meet the equipment rules?
- 16. What is the procedure to break a tie between two competitors?

5/21/2008