

Archery Canada - Privacy Policy

Approved by the Board of Directors on January 23, 2016

1) Purpose Of This Policy

- 1.1. Privacy of personal information is governed by the Personal Information Protection and Electronics Documents Act (“PIPEDA”). This policy describes the way that Archery Canada collects, uses, retains, safeguards, discloses and disposes of personal information, and states Archery Canada’s commitment to collecting, using and disclosing personal information responsibly. This policy is based on the standards required by PIPEDA, and Archery Canada’s interpretation of these responsibilities.

2) Background

- 2.1. Our organization, Archery Canada, is the governing body for the sport of Archery in Canada, and provides services to members and the public in accordance with our mission statement:
- 2.2. “To promote and develop our timeless sport of archery in a safe and ethical manner by providing programs that empower all participants to enjoy themselves and achieve their personal goals.”

3) Personal Information

- 3.1. Personal information is information about an identifiable registrant. Personal information includes information that relates to their personal characteristics (e.g., gender, age, income, home address or phone number, ethnic background, family status), their health (e.g., health history, health conditions, health services received by them) or their activities and views (e.g., religion, politics, opinions expressed by an registrant, an opinion or evaluation of an registrant). Personal information, however, does not include business information (e.g., a registrant’s business address and telephone number), which is not protected by privacy legislation.

4) Accountability

- 4.1. The Archery Canada Board director responsible for the Finance and Administration Portfolio is the Privacy Officer and is responsible for the monitoring of information collection and data security, and ensuring that all staff receive appropriate training on privacy issues and their responsibilities. The Privacy Officer also handles personal information access requests and complaints. The Privacy Officer may be contacted at the following address: #108 - 2255 boulevard St. Laurent Blvd., Ottawa, ON K1G 4K3.

5) Purpose

- 5.1. Personal information will only be collected by Archery Canada to meet and maintain the highest standard of organizing and programming the sport of Archery. Archery Canada collects personal information from prospective registrants, members, coaches, participants, managers and volunteers for purposes that include, but are not limited to, the following:
- Name, address, phone number, cell phone number, fax number and e-mail address for the purpose of communicating about Archery Canada's programs, events and activities.
 - NCCP number, education, resumes and experience for database entry at the Coaching Association of Canada to determine level of certification and coaching qualifications.
 - Credit card information for registration at conferences, travel administration, tournaments, purchasing equipment, coaching manuals and other products and resources.
 - Date of birth, athlete biography, and member province/territory to determine eligibility, age group and appropriate level of play.
 - Banking information, social insurance number, criminal records check, resume, and beneficiaries for Archery Canada's payroll, company insurance and health plan.
 - Criminal records check and related personal reference information for the purpose of implementing Archery Canada's volunteer screening program.
 - Personal health information including provincial health card numbers, allergies, emergency contact and past medical history for use in the case of medical emergency.
 - Athlete information including uniform size, feedback from coaches and trainers, performance results for athlete registration forms, outfitting uniforms, media relations, and various components of athlete and team selection.
 - Athlete whereabouts information including sport/discipline, training times and venues, training camp dates and locations, travel plans, competition schedule, and disability, if applicable, for Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport inquiries for the purposes of out-of-competition drug testing.
 - Body weight, mass and body fat index to monitor physical response to training.

- Marketing information including attitudinal and demographic data on registrant registrants to determine registrant demographic structure, and program wants and needs.
 - Passport data for the purposes of arranging travel.
 - Name, address, phone number, cell phone number, fax number and e-mail address for the purpose of providing insurance coverage, managing insurance claims.
- 5.2. If a purpose has not been identified herein, Archery Canada will seek consent from registrants when personal information is used for a purpose not already consented to. This consent will be documented as to when and how it was received.

6) Consent

- 6.1. Consent is required to be obtained by lawful means from registrants at the time of collection, prior to the use or disclosure of the personal information. If the consent to the collection, use or disclosure was not obtained upon receipt of the information, consent will be obtained prior to the use or disclosure of that information. Archery Canada may collect personal information without consent where reasonable to do so and where permitted by law.
- 6.2. By providing personal information to Archery Canada, registrants are consenting to the use of the information for the purposes identified in this policy.
- 6.3. Archery Canada will not, as a condition of a product or service, require a registrant to consent to the collection, use or disclosure of information beyond that required to fulfill the specified purpose.
- 6.4. A registrant may withdraw consent to the collection, use or disclosure of personal information at any time, subject to legal or contractual restrictions, provided the registrant gives one week's notice of such withdrawal to Archery Canada. The Privacy Officer will advise the registrant of the implications of such withdrawal.

7) Limiting Collection

- 7.1. All personal information will be collected fairly, by lawful means and for the purposes as specified in this policy. Archery Canada will not use any form of deception to obtain personal information.

8) Limiting Use, Disclosure and Retention

- 8.1. Personal information will not be used or disclosed by Archery Canada for purposes other than those for which it was collected as described herein, except with the consent of the registrant or as required by law.

- 8.2. Personal information will be retained for certain periods of time in accordance with the following:
- Registration data and athlete information will be retained for a period of three years after a registrant has left a program of Archery Canada, in the event that the registrant chooses to return to the program;
 - Parental/family information will be retained for a period of three years after a registrant has left a program of Archery Canada, in the event that the registrant chooses to return to the program;
 - Information collected by coaches will be retained for a period of three years after a registrant has left a program of Archery Canada, in the event that the registrant chooses to return to the program.
 - Employee information will be retained for a period of seven years in accordance with Canada Revenue Agency requirements.
 - Personal health information will be immediately destroyed when a registrant chooses to leave a program of Archery Canada.
 - Marketing information will be immediately destroyed upon compilation and analysis of collected information.
 - As otherwise may be stipulated in federal or provincial legislation.
 - Personal information that is used to make a decision about a registrant will be maintained for a minimum of one year of time to allow the registrant access to the information after the decision has been made.
- 8.3. Archery Canada may disclose personal information to a government authority that has asserted its lawful authority to obtain the information or where Archery Canada has reasonable grounds to believe the information could be useful in the investigation of an unlawful activity, or to comply with a subpoena or warrant or an order made by the court or otherwise as permitted by applicable law.
- 8.4. Documents will be destroyed by way of shredding and electronic files will be deleted in their entirety. When hardware is discarded, Archery Canada will ensure that the hard drive is physically destroyed.

9) Accuracy

- 9.1. Archery Canada will use accurate and up-to-date information as is necessary for the purposes for which it is to be used, to minimize the possibility that inappropriate information may be used to make a decision about a registrant.

10) Safeguards

- 10.1. Personal information is protected by security safeguards appropriate to the sensitivity of the information against loss or theft, unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification.
- 10.2. Methods of protection and safeguards include, but are not limited to, locked filing cabinets, restricted access to offices, security clearances, need-to-know access and technological measures including the use of passwords, encryption and firewalls.
- 10.3. The following steps will be taken to ensure security:
 - Paper information is either under supervision or secured in a locked or restricted area.
 - Electronic hardware is either under supervision or secured in a locked or restricted area at all times. In addition, passwords are used on computers.
 - Paper information is transmitted through sealed, addressed envelopes or in boxes by reputable courier/delivery companies.
 - Electronic information is transmitted either through a direct line or is encrypted.
 - Staff are trained to collect, use and disclose personal information only as necessary to fulfill their duties and in accordance with this policy.
 - External consultants and agencies with access to personal information will provide Archery Canada with appropriate privacy assurances.

11) Openness

- 11.1. Archery Canada will publicize information about its policies and practices relating to the management of personal information. This information is available through this policy, on Archery Canada's web site or upon request by contacting the Privacy Officer.
- 11.2. The information available to the public includes:
 - The name or title, address and telephone number of Archery Canada's Privacy Officer.
 - The forms that may be used to access personal information or change information.
 - A description of the type of personal information held by Archery Canada, including a general statement of its approved uses.

12) Registrant Access

- 12.1. Upon written request, and with assistance from Archery Canada, a registrant may be informed of the existence, use and disclosure of his or her personal information and will be given access to that information. As well, a registrant is entitled to be informed of the source of the personal information along with an account of third parties to whom the information has been disclosed.

- 12.2. Requested information will be disclosed to the registrant within 30 days of receipt of the written request at no cost to the registrant, or at nominal cost relating to photocopying expenses, unless there are reasonable grounds to extend the time limit.
- 12.3. If personal information is inaccurate or incomplete, it will be amended as required.
- 12.4. A registrant may be denied access to his or her personal information if:
 - This information is prohibitively costly to provide;
 - The information contains references to other registrants;
 - The information cannot be disclosed for legal, security or commercial proprietary purposes;
 - The information is subject to solicitor-client or litigation privilege.
- 12.5. Upon refusal, Archery Canada will inform the registrant the reasons for the refusal and the associated provisions of PIPEDA.

13) Challenging Compliance

- 13.1. A registrant may challenge Archery Canada's compliance with this policy and PIPEDA, by submitting a challenge in writing.
- 13.2. Upon receipt of a written complaint, Archery Canada will:
- 13.3. Record the date the complaint is received;
 - Notify the Privacy Officer who will serve in a neutral, unbiased capacity to resolve the complaint;
 - Acknowledge receipt of the complaint by way of telephone conversation and clarify the nature of the complaint within three days of receipt of the complaint;
 - Appoint an investigator using Archery Canada personnel or an independent investigator, who will have the skills necessary to conduct a fair and impartial investigation, and who will have unfettered access to all files and personnel, within ten days of receipt of the complaint.
 - Upon completion of the investigation and within 25 days of receipt of the complaint, the investigator will submit a written report to Archery Canada.
 - Notify the complainant of the outcome of the investigation and any relevant steps taken to rectify the complaint, including any amendments to policies and procedures, within 30 days of receipt of the complaint.
- 13.4. A registrant may appeal a decision made by Archery Canada under this Policy, in accordance with Archery Canada's policies for appeals.

14) Jurisdiction

- 14.1. This policy shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario.

15) Review and Approval

- 15.1. The Archery Canada Board of Directors and Executive Director shall review this policy every four (4) years on the Summer Olympic/Paralympic Games cycle.
