2020 Canadian Indoor 3D Championship	Chilliwack, British Columbia	March 27-29th 2020	4

Minimum Level of Certification

The minimum desired level of judge certification for all Canadian Championships is National Judge Candidate. Note: With the recommendation of a judge applicant's province/territory, a Provincial/Territorial Judge will be considered a National Judge Candidate by the Judge Committee.

Judging Expenses

Archery Canada will cover the following judge expenses for all Canadian Championships:

1. Daily per diem at a rate of $50.00 (the following rates will be used: $10/breakfast $15/lunch, $25/dinner)
2. Travel to and from the host city (air travel or ground transportation). Air travel is the cost of an Air Canada Tango class or equivalent priced class of ticket with other airlines such as Westjet, Porter. For those that travel by car, Archery Canada provides a reimbursement rate of $0.45 per kilometre to a maximum equal to the above described airline ticket cost. It is the lesser amount of the two (ground or air transport) that is reimbursed by Archery Canada.

The Host Organizing Committee (HOC) will cover the following judge expenses for all Canadian Championships:

1. Accommodation (based on double occupancy). Judges that want private rooms, are responsible for paying the additional charges.
2. Ground transportation to and from the hotel and the competition venue

3. One (1) banquet ticket per judge.

Please note that Archery Canada does not cover expenses for the National Candidates who are not members of the Officials Teams. Please consider asking your provincial/territorial archery association for financial assistance to help cover your costs.

Selection Process

The Archery Canada Judge Committee will review all applications and nominate judges to the Officials Team for each Championship. Nominations to the Officials Team will be approved by the Archery Canada Board of Directors by the end of November 2019, after which all judges named to Officials Teams, and all alternate judges will be notified.

Applications

All interested judges must complete the application form below by November 1st 2019.
