

BC Archery

Archery Canada Recurve TOP Identification Camp

WHEN: October 26-27, 2019

VENUE: 4161 Lakemount Road, Abbotsford, BC

The TOP Identification camp and Development ID Program will target recurve archers and their coaches, and will be led by Recurve National Coach, Shawn Riggs, and the Recurve System Pathway coach, Joan McDonald

Tentative Schedule:

Saturday Oct 26

9am – 4pm National Program staff working directly with athletes and their coaches

5pm—8pm AC High Performance seminar/forum for coaches only

Sunday Oct 27

9am – Noon More individual work and skill drills.

Each coach is encouraged to observe and participate in the full weekend clinic with their archers. The coach specific seminar held on Saturday evening, from 5-8pm has been submitted to the CAC for approval of PD points.

The TOP Camps are designed to be an opportunity for interested athletes to be assessed for entry into the Development/ID Program, a component of the High Performance Pathway for the Recurve Target program

For more information, please visit: Archery Canada Athlete Pathway-Recurve

Registration:

Cost: $225.00 per archer, $50.00 per coach.

Secure your spot by sending an e-mail to Linda Price athlete-dev@bcarchery.ca

Payment will be requested upon receipt of the registration E-mail.

Space is limited to 16 athlete participants. Preference will be given to athletes born in 2001-2005 who have scores posted for Outdoor ranking